

NEW YORK COLLEGE
EUROPEAN & AMERICAN EDUCATION

BS in International Business - New York College

AIMS

Knowledge Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this program students will be able to:

- Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of management of international business, international finance, international marketing and international relations.
- Demonstrate knowledge in business fundamentals including understanding of management science, economics, accounting, computing and information systems, organizational behaviour, business law and ethics;
- Have a foundation in science and liberal studies as delivered through the General Education program.
- Explain the effect of international business environmental factors (legal, economic and cultural) on the conduct of global business.
- Understand the political, regulatory and environmental context in which the global practice of business is conducted
- Explain the principles and theories of ethical decision-making and their practical implications in the everyday conduct of business.
- Pursue postgraduate studies or professional qualifications in the field of management.

Skills Outcomes:

As a result of completing this program, students should have acquired the following skills and values:

- excellent written and oral communication skills;
- demonstrate analytical and critical-thinking skills necessary to make sound business and personal decisions;
- numeric and quantitative skills including data analysis, interpretation and extrapolation;
- effective use of communication and information technology for business applications
- effective self-management in terms of time, planning and behavior, motivation, self-starting, individual initiative and enterprise;
- self-awareness, openness and sensitivity to diversity in terms of people, cultures, business.

Duration

Most bachelor's degree programs are designed to require 4 academic years of full-time study, it starts in October, January.